

State Water Resources Control Board
Division of Financial Assistance
2005-06 Consolidated Grants Program: Concept Proposals
Invite Back List for Ocean Protection Projects*

PIN #	PROPOSAL TITLE	NATIVE REGION	FUNDS REQUESTED ($)
8890	Redwood Creek Erosion Control	1	$1,425,000
9101	Conserving Our Watersheds (COW): Tomales Bay, Walker and Stemple Creek TMDL Implementation	1 & 2	$1,000,000
9170	La Jolla Shores ASBS Dry Weather Flow and Pollution Control Program	9	$3,600,000
9208	Implementation of Protection and Restoration Project in the ASBSs - Central Coastal Orange County	8	$1,646,000
9237	Epidemiology Study to Assess Beneficial Use Loss from Nonpoint Sources of Bacteria	9	$3,000,000
9288	Olema Creek Sediment Reduction Project	2	$612,614
9306	Laguna Canyon Creek Restoration Project	9	$1,875,000
9321	North Coast Stormwater Coalition's NPS Pollution Prevention Program	1	$325,000
9332	Implementation of rapid indicator methodology for measuring fecal indicator bacteria	8	$1,500,000
9349	Endocrine Disruption in Aquatic Systems of the Los Angeles Region	4	$562,000
9358	Monitoring and mitigation measures to address fecal pathogen pollution along the California coast	3	$1,583,674
9376	Russian, Gualala, Garcia Rivers Coastal Water Quality Monitoring Project	1	$300,000
9379	The Monterey Bay Regional Urban Watch-First Flush Stormwater Monitoring Program	3	$450,000
9448	Steinbeck Plaza Stormwater Treatment Improvements	3	$709,500

TOTAL: $18,588,788

* Note: At least $10 million of the Proposition 50 Coastal Nonpoint Source Pollution Control Program funds are reserved for ocean protection projects. Ocean protection projects are those that meet the mutual priorities of the State Water Resources Control Board and Ocean Protection Council. This list does not include invitations for the remaining Proposition 50 Coastal Nonpoint Source Pollution Control Program funds or the other programs included in the 2005-06 Consolidated Grants Program.